

YOUR LOCAL LITTLE BLACK BOOK Reigate - Autumn Launch Edition

As many of you know, UK high streets are changing fast and Reigate is no exception. From macro-economics to micro-breweries the way we are spending and using the high street is transforming. September sees the launch of Your Local Little Black Book (YLLBB) Reigate, a new seasonal publication. YLLBB features the best of local shops and services set to give Reigate an extra boost and a call from the local founders to get to know the area even better.

Lisa Huddleston, the Co-Founder of YLLBB said: "We all think we know our town well but all too often we go to the same places without venturing out of our comfort zone or do not stop to see what goes on beyond the front window perhaps not making the most of what is on offer to us. YLLBB wants to change that and we have done the hard work. We want this to be a great 'go to' for local people to rediscover what is on their doorstep, shop local, further encourage sustainably and find new places and services. Great news for Reigatians and those visiting as there is a lot still out there to be exposed."

YLLBB covers a broad range from Home and Garden, Health and Wellbeing, Food and Drink, Sports and Fitness, Style and Beauty, Family and Kids, Business & Professional and a quick reference Service Directory.

Alison Goodman, joint Co-Founder of YLLBB said: "From fitness, wellbeing, restaurants, clothing, and everyday needs these are the points of contact to engage with our local services, whether you have a presence on or off the high street. We all lead very busy lives but we understand the importance of supporting local. We have loved uncovering and getting to know some great local businesses better and we are excited to share them with our readers."

YLLBB feels passionate about supporting the many not for profit organisations at the heart of the community, run by volunteers providing an incredibly important function. A dedicated space has been given to promote local charities and community clubs and raise awareness within the community they support.

Cllr Humphreys from Reigate and Banstead Council, said: "We are committed to supporting local businesses and are pleased to see the first edition of Your Local Little Black Book. We hope that the business grant awarded in June of this year helps them to highlight the great local business community in a hardcopy format that we're sure will be appreciated by many."

YLLBB is very appreciative of the support of Reigate and Banstead to launch our first edition. We hope you enjoy our first of many books to come and would love to discuss how you could be involved in our next edition!
